Korean Protest.

A dispatch from Paris says that the Kurenn minister, Min Yeung-Tchan, sailed for New York yesterday on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. for the purpose of presenting a protest at Washington against Japan assuming authority over Korea. The Minister says the protest emanates from the Emperor of Kores, who cabled instructions to procure a protest to France and the United States. The Minister's advices, say that Japan's The Minister's advices say that Japan's assumption of power was accompanied by a display of armed force, and that the Emperor was treated vi-lently. In-quiry in French governmental quarters indicates that there is no intention to act upon the Korean protest. The officials point out that several protests from the same quarter have been so mitted during the last few months. The offi-cial. view is that Japan's assumption of the control of Korea was inevitable, and that therefore, while the methods may have been harsh, yet the situation does not warrant the powers in intervening, since China and Russia, which are principally concerned, have given up by the treaties of Shimonoseki and Portsteep the right to intervene. mouth the right to intervene.

Death from Religious Fervor.

Mrs. J. K Rumberg, wife of a Methodist minister at Simpson, Floyd county, Va., diei yesterday morning in Rounoke from the effects of religious enthusism. Her husband, Rev. J. K. Rumberg, a member of the Virginia Conference, conducted a revival at their home church, Tuesday night. Mrs. Arlington Rumberg Gray, a daughter of the pastor, and his wife, went to the alter and made a profession of faith. The mother, who is a devout Methodist, was so overjoyed that she began shouting, which she kept up until completely exhausted, falling in a swoon. She was carried out of the church and a physician sent for. She could not be removed to her home, a quarter mile distant, for several hours, on account of the seriousness of her condition. She was seized with a hemorrhage from over exertion and excitement, and death finally resulted. The revival was broken up. The husband is grief stricken. It is feared that the pastor's mind may become unbalanced. Mrs. Rumberg leaves several children, among them being a married son and daughter. died yesterday morning in Rosnoke from the
